Dear Arnab,

It is with great pleasure that I invite you to join the Editorial Board of Renal and Epithelial Physiology as Review Editor for Frontiers in Physiology based on your expertise as well as your excellent publication record.

As a Review Editor you would be a member of the Editorial Board and act as a regular reviewer for the journal of Frontiers in Physiology. You would be responsible for assessing the rigour and validity of the research, and work collaboratively with authors and editors to improve the manuscripts, ensuring only high-quality content is published.

Frontiers acknowledges the significant contribution of our Review Editors by publishing their names on the articles they endorse.

If you would like to accept this invitation, please click on the following link:

Dr. Kishore Kumar Ubrangala

Dr. Kishore Kumar Ubrangala was born on twenty second May 1960 at Ubrangala village, Kasaragod District, Kerala to Gopalakrishna Kunikullaya Ubrangala and Sarojini Devi. After his schooling at Sri. Agalpady Annapurneshwari High School and Pre-University course from St Aloysius College, he obtained his MBBS from Calicut Medical College in 1983 and MD General Medicine from the same college in 1987.

He started his career as Chief Physician, Fatima Mata Mission Hospital, Kalpetta, Wynad, Kerala where he served till 1991. During that period, he was the Secretary of IMA Kalpetta branch, Kerala State from 1988 to 1989 and during his tenure the branch won the second best branch award in Kerala State. He conducted regular medical camps in the tribal areas of Wynad district, Kerala, worked with Sick cell disease patients which was prevalent in Wynad among Tribals and diagnosed Leptospirosis among people in Wynad. He was instrumental in organizing the State level CME programmes under the banner of IMA, Kerala State. He was the Founder Joint secretary of IMA Kerala State Social Security Scheme.

After a brief stint of 7 years as Senior Resident at Salmaniya Medical Centre, Manama, Bahrain, he joined Yenepoya Medical College as Assistant Professor in May 2000 in the Department of General Medicine and later became Professor and Head of the department during 2014-15. He was appointed as Professor and Head of the newly formed department of Geriatric Medicine in 2017 and he is currently working as Professor in the department of Geriatric Medicine.

As a visionary physician he has contributed his leadership talent and time to make remarkable changes in IMA and API, D.K. Chapter. He was the Central executive committee member, IMA Mangaluru branch from 2014 to 2016, President of API, Dakshina Kannada Chapter, Mangalore, Karnataka. 2010-2011: During his tenure he organised monthly CMEs for Physician of Dakshina Kannada. 'Postgraduate Medicine Update' a unique two days post graduate teaching programme held in December 2010 was his brain child and he was the program director for the same. He initiated digitalization of API communications, digital email directory, API DK blog. He also started the practice of issuing certificates with speaker's photo (in place of mementoes) for regular API meetings, and scientific sessions. He was instrumental in waiving off Membership fee for members above 75 years.

He was the Joint Organizing secretary of South India Conference on Critical Care – "CRITICON -2005" held at Mangalore on 5 & 6, March 2005. On the religious front, he is Hereditary Managing Trustee of 2 temples in Ubrangala village, Ubrangala Shri Mahadeva Parvathi Shri Shasthara Temple and Kudkuli Shri Durgaparameshwari family Temple. In all his achievement he is supported by his dear wife Dr. Sandhya Kishore Ubrangala, MBBS, DO. and his exemplary children Dr. Rachana Kishore Ubrangala, MBBS, MD General Medicine and Rahul Kishore Ubrangala who is a final year Bachelor of Hotel Management student at IHM, Mumbai.

An academicians of highest calibre, clinician par excellence, ever enthusiastic teacher and above all a humble physician with high ethical standards made him the most loved and adored person not only amongst the medical fraternity but among general public as well. As we celebrate "physicians day 2020" it is with deep sense of gratitude and respect that we bestow this honour to our dear Ubrangala sir and wish him health strength and happiness in the days to come.
