Undertaking regarding the present status of Automation

The Examination Management System (EMS) software of Yenepoya (Deemed to be University) was developed and implemented in the year 2012. Since then this software has undergone modifications to suit to the increasing demands of automation. Currently the examination section of the university is automated completely with regard to conduct of examinations, evaluation, announcement of results, marks card and degree certificate generation. As the Examination Management software is developed by the information technology department of Yenepoya (Deemed to be University) in-house there is no corresponding invoice in this regard.

The details of software on Student/Examination Management System developed in house is provided under copies of purchase order of the software.
