Screen Shot :5 Digital answer script reading screen

1. The corticospinal tract:

It is the important pyramidal tract. It has 1 million neurons. Each fiber is long and myelinated. The fibers are organized by body side. That is crossed. Some fibers are called decussation. It is the most important pyramidal tract than other tracts. Each fiber is myelinated and each fiber has the longest one is the thickest one. 1 million neurons fibers are there in the corticospinal tract or pyramidal tract. The corticospinal tract will pass present in spinal cord of the body. It helps spinal cord of the body. There are many tracts but the corticospinal

Page 5: The student has drawn a diagram of the corticospinal tract, showing a central brain area with fibers descending through the spinal cord. Below the diagram, the student has written:

1. Regeneration:

A diagram showing a central node 'DN' with three branches labeled 'DN', 'DN', and 'DN'. To the right, there is a vertical line with several nodes labeled 'nerve', 'nerve', and 'nerve'. The word 'Regeneration' is written to the right of the diagram.

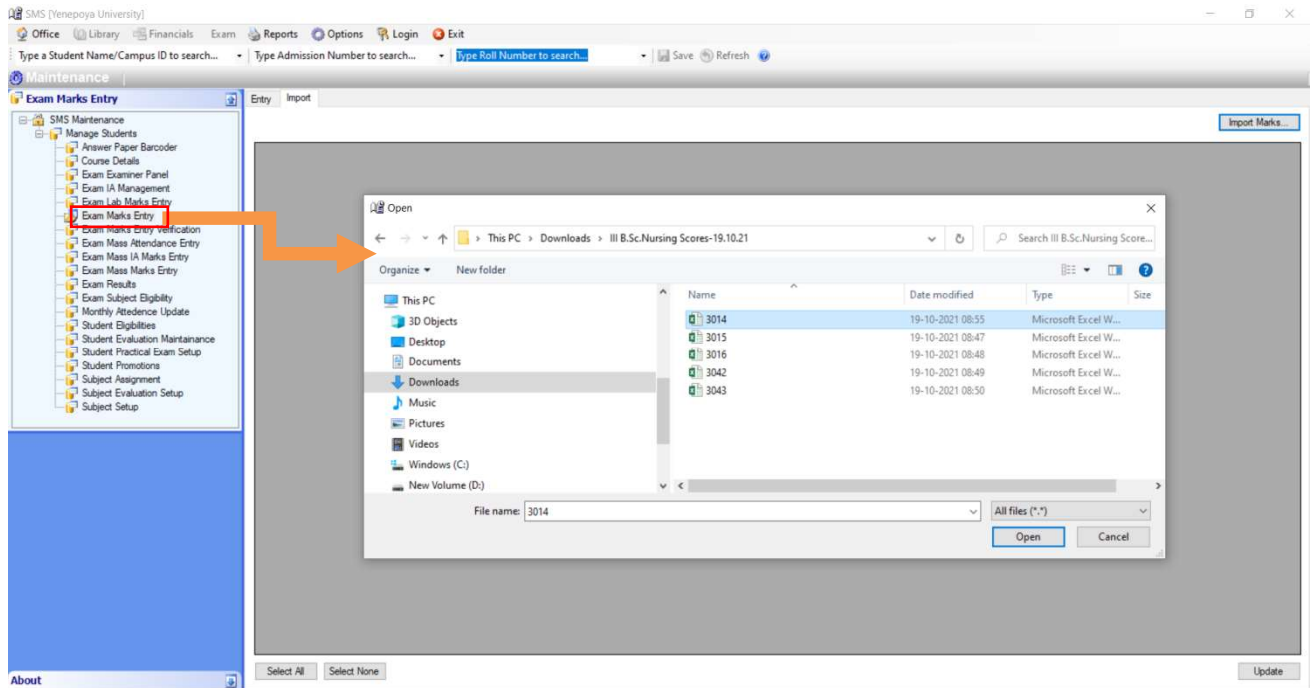

Screen Shot :6 Onscreen scoring

The screenshot shows an onscreen scoring interface. At the top, there is an 'Inbox' and 'Menu' button. Below that, there is a section for 'Annotations' with a 'Max' value of 15 and a 'ON' indicator. The main part of the interface is a list of questions with their respective marks and a vertical column of circular buttons for marking each question. The buttons are numbered from 0 to 6. The total marks are 0/100.
