RENAISSANCE 2019

Report

Renaissance 2019, the Intercollege Fest of Yenepoya Deemed to be University was held between 25th April 2019 and 28th April 2019. Named "Jamboree" and inspired by Carnival as a theme, the event was a resounding success and a Fest to be remembered.

Jamboree 2k19 was hosted by 2016 Batch and officially began on 25th April 2019. The Inauguration was a riot of colour and sound, beginning with a performance by a Tambola band and a guest performance by Shan Mass, famous for his hit single Kaserock. His stunning performance was followed by the energetic and colourful dances by the hosting batch. The day ended with a DJ performance by the renown Sjana Catherine and Tibin Joy of Sunburn. Suffice to say, Jamboree began with a bang.

Each following day had its own dress theme, with ethnic wear, mismatched attire and formal wear making an appearance. The University was a sight to see on those four days, with everyone dressed in their best. All the performances put on display were simply stunning, and the talents of the students and staff of Yenepoya made themselves known.

The students of Yenepoya deemed to be University shone on stage, displaying sensational dances, resplendent musical performances and glittering walks down the runway. The excitement was palpable in the air in every venue, from the quieter events like Mehendi to the action packed Variety Entertainment. A stunning show at every turn, where not a single act was disappointing. The Batch of 2016 won Variety and Fashion Show, the biggest events of the fest, and managed to snag the overall championship, with the Batch of 2017 running a close second.

One cannot not mention the performance of the staff in Yentity 2019, events conducted exclusively for the staff of Yenepoya University. Yentity was heated this year, each constituent college posing stiff competition. Dazzling and astounding are words that cannot do justice to the acts that the fraternity performed. The competition was fierce in Anthakshari and Rangoli and every stage performance was nothing short of phenomenal. At the end of the day, Yenepoya Dental College defended their positions as reigning champions, followed by Runners Up Yenepoya Admin Block.

Jamboree 2k19 wound down on the 28th of April, and closed on a note of success. The event had been an uproar of laughter, joy and colour, and is a memory dear to everyone's heart. Our thanks to all the souls who put in their heart and effort into making this Fest possible.

REPORT ON RENAISSANCE – 2016

Every year the 3rd year students of Yenepoya University proudly host the cultural extravaganza – Renaissance and Yentity. This year, we the batch of 2013 had the privilege to organise the five day event. While Renaissance is a set of competitions for all the students, Yentity is an equally fun filled event for the faculty and staff of Yenepoya University.

This five day event was held from April 26th 2016 to April 30th 2016. The official wall was unveiled and the promo was released by Mr. Farhaad Yenepoya, Director of Finance, Yenepoya University at Yen Square on April 5th 2016. The fun and frolic began with the preliminary rounds of various competitions, the first one being the Singing Preliminary Round on April 5th, 6th and 7th 2016.

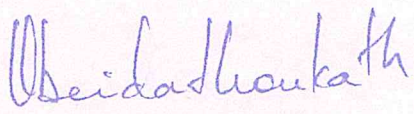

Then on, in the span of the next 20 days, variety of off stage events and preliminary rounds of other events were held.

The Inaugural Ceremony was a grand affair, inaugurated by Dr. Vijaya Kumar, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Yenepoya University at 5pm on 26th April 2016, at the Yendurance Zone. The 27th April started off with 'Face off – the Debate' for the students on the topic – 'Selfless service by doctors to the public – a boon or a bane?.'

On the 28th of April we had 'Mock Press' for staff and 'Shipwreck' for the students where the contestants came as mock celebrities and didn't fail to entertain the media. The events on 29th April started off with 'Antakshari' for the staff. The competition was so energetic that it almost got the participants dancing. The 30th of April saw the finale of the fest. With 'Brainwave – The quiz' followed by 'Melange – Potpourii', the students found it a challenge tackling the mind boggling questions. We consider this opportunity given to us a privilege indeed.

Report of Cultural Fest 2015

“We sow the seed, to the tree of tomorrow”

With this thought, the 2012 batch, ‘Invictus’ hosted ‘Renaissance’ and ‘Yentity’, in its true essence, with much zeal and enthusiasm. With about 25 events, which saw active participation from both staff and students, the cultural events were held from the 7th to the 11th of April.

On day one, the campus was transformed into a “Yen Studio” with various stations showcasing the artistic excellence of our students. The events kick started with the promotional event, on 7th morning around the fountain.

The fest was inaugurated by the Hon’ble Chancellor Mr. Yenepoya Abdulla Kunhi, Vice Chancellor - Dr.P.Chandramohan, Registrar – Dr. C.V.Raghuveer. The highlight of the evening was “Addicted to life”, a program which was suggested by the Hon’ble Chancellor to curb substance abuse and spread awareness.

On the following days, the staff and students of Yenepoya were given a platform to showcase their literary and cultural excellence.

The cultural programme concluded with the “Star Invictus Night” which included a banquet dinner for all the students, staff and their families. This brought the whole of Yenepoya Family together. To entertain the crowd, various performances were held by the staff and students. This night also saw a special performance by the famous dance
